

Reminder: Comment Period for USMLE Score Reporting Preliminary Recommendations Ends Friday, July 26

June 24, 2019

Friday marks the final day that you can provide thoughts and viewpoints about potential USMLE score reporting changes online. If you haven't already had the chance, please review the materials on the possible change and let us know your input in the respond section. Visit the website.

Want to learn more? The recent webinar, "Exploring Possible Changes to USMLE Score Reporting," allowed the Invitational Conference on USMLE Scoring (InCUS) convening organizations to hear from stakeholders and to answer questions. The webinar can be found here. Frequently asked questions about USMLE Preliminary Recommendations are also available here.

We encourage anyone interested in this important topic to submit comments by July 26, 2019. Final recommendations will follow the timeline, which will be updated as the process moves forward.
